

Conclusion:

As a result of blatant and intentional prosecutorial and judicial misconduct I was denied much more than a fair trial and due process. I was denied my right to impartial judges, plural. I was denied my right to an impartial jury. I was denied pre-trial bond based on perjury. I was denied discovery. I was denied Jencks. I was denied Brady. I was denied Giglio. I was denied a speedy trial. I was denied effective representation. I was denied sleep during trial. I was denied witnesses. I was denied subpoenas. I was denied confrontation and cross examination. I was denied impeachment. I was denied an opening statement. I was denied hearings on my motions. I was denied my right to testify. I was denied every possible defense. I was denied the ability to argue the law. I was denied voire dire of the jurors, multiple times. I was denied certain trial transcripts. I was denied grand jury transcripts. I was denied proper jury instructions. I was denied bond when all other co-defendants are out on bond pending appeal.

Feel free to contact me anytime concerning these allegations.

Thank You.

Jude LaCour